

Scarecrows are Popping up all over Kane!

Scarecrow Contest in Collaboration with Flickerwood Wine Cellars in Celebration of FallFest!

Kane, PA, September 20, 2011— Be on the lookout for scarecrows in Kane! The Kane Area Development Center announces the start of the 2011 Business Scarecrow Contest! Twelve businesses and organizations are registered to participate. Participants have decorated their scarecrows and are displaying them all week in various locations throughout Kane. The scarecrows will be transported to Flickerwood Wine Cellars for FallFest on Saturday, September 24th. FallFest goers will have the opportunity to vote for their favorite scarecrow. The winner of the scarecrow contest will be able to donate all money collected in entry fees to a Kane charity of their choice! Be sure to stop by Flickerwood, 309 Flickerwood Road in Kane on Saturday from 10AM to 6PM to vote for your favorite scarecrow! You can also check out the rest of the FallFest activities on Sunday from 10Am-6PM!
